

Christopher Paul Carchiolo

September 20, 1968 - April 18, 2023

On April 13, 2023, after a brief battle with cancer, Chris peacefully left this earth. Chris was born in Brooklyn New York and grew up in Sarasota, Florida. He is survived by his mother Virginia Carchiolo, his sister Alison Fuentes (partner Harry Schmitt) and her children Olivia Glasgow (husband Andrew Glasgow and their son August Jay Glasgow) and Gabrielle Fuentes (her daughter Lillianna Fuentes) and Jennifer Carchiolo Lozzi (son Anthony Lozzi Jr. "AJ").

Chris' childhood passion was baseball. He met most of his lifelong friends through Sarasota Little League, and continued to play baseball throughout high school at Sarasota High School. After graduating high school in 1986, Chris moved on to study psychology at the Florida State University.

After graduating, Chris returned to Sarasota where he has had a celebrated career in social services. He has served to advocate for our most vulnerable populations while contributing to programs within Coastal Recovery Center, Mental Health Community Center and most recently with JFCS VIP-er program.

Chris was known to be a trustworthy, compassionate and steadfast advocate for his clients, coworkers and family.

Those who knew Chris also knew that he was a loyal Yankees fan, a homebody and veracious gardener. Nothing brought him more joy than spending time in his garden. On any day of the week, one could find Chris in his yard nurturing his private oasis.

Chris passed away quickly and peacefully at home with his mother by his side. The Carchiolo family is currently in the process of making arrangements to celebrate Chris' life and details will be shared when they are finalized.

Tribute Wall

“ I just found out Chris Passed. Knew him in the college days. Great Guy! RIP Chris. ”

David Money - January 21 at 12:57 PM

“ Christopher Paul Carchiolo ”

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Christopher Paul Carchiolo. ”

April 21, 2023 at 06:39 PM