

Christopher Cory Cassion

June 5, 2003 - April 10, 2011

Christopher Cory Cassion was born to Jules Patrick and Ismaelie Cassion on June 5, 2003 in Naples Florida. Christopher fell asleep Sunday April 10, 2011. Christopher has always been a joyful person since birth. Christopher attended Gateway Charter School in Lehigh Acres Florida. He loved going to school and would always be the first one to get up in the morning to get ready for school. One of his favorite subjects was Spanish. Christopher and his family shared a warm and loving relationship. Even though he was the youngest he always referred to himself as the man of the house. Growing up in a Christian home, Christopher developed a love for Jehovah God and learned the importance of prayer at a young age. Every morning and night he would get the family together to pray. He also loved being at Christian meetings where he looked forward to expressing his faith through his meaningful comments. How he must have brought joy to Jehovah's heart. Surely, what is recorded in the Bible at Hebrews 6:10 is true in his case, "For God is not unrighteous so as to forget your work and the love you showed for His name..." Christopher left us with many, many fond memories. Christopher is survived by his loving parents Jules and Ismaelie Cassion, his sisters Cherline Bonhomme, Michelle Cassion, Ashley Cassion, aunts, uncles and cousins as well as a host of spiritual brothers and sisters. Visitation will be held Friday, April 22, 2011, from 4-9 pm at Anderson Patterson Cremation & Funeral Services chapel, Lehigh Acres. A service will be held Saturday, April 23, 2011 at 11 am at Kingdom Hall, Immokalee, Florida. Burial at Lake Trafford Memorial Gardens,

Immokalee, Florida.
