“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we can only hope to begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget. Chris we will all miss you. Your smile and quick wit; your passion to always do your best in everything you touched - I am proud to call you a friend. Rest in peace dear friend, soar with the angels. Prayers go out to your children and family may the love of those around you help you in the days ahead.

“ Christopher and i have been the best of friends since our days in Cape Coral HS. Over the past 25 years Christopher and i have shared so much together. We worked together at Walmart. We were roommates and in Kenpo Karate together. We grew up in our adult lives together and seen so many things. Having been his best man and watching his children grow up has been such a joy and pleasure in my life. Being fathers together was was just another incredible chapter in our lives. I will miss his laughter and his funny expressions and mannerisms. I feel apart of me is now missing and i feel lost. I will miss Christopher dearly and i may have lost my best friend but i will never forget him our our years together. I love you Christopher.

“ Chris was my Best Friend in the military..he was there for me thru some tough times, relationships and war. He always kept me smiling and feeling safe. We first bonded over the fact that we were both from Rhode Island and our friendship went on from there. We lost touch a bit after the military but in the past 2 years got to reconnect thru facebook...and I am very grateful for that reconnection! I was super blessed to have Chris in my life near or far!

“ Getting to know you over my years at LYNX was a pleasure and I feel that a friendship grew. We worked together on many things and you taught me a lot about life. Your stories kept our boring trips interesting and gave me insight into the couragous man you were. You were taken way to soon! You will be missed! Rest in peace and my prayers go out to you and your family in this sad time.

“ Chris was a great friend and there are no words to describe the grief that I am feeling right now, and I cannot possibly imagine the shock and sorrow within his family. I will always remember the experiences we had over the last 13 years.

Chris was one of the greatest people I have known; always willing to help a friend or colleague during any situation whether it was in the office or some home improvement project. Chris was undoubtedly taken from us too soon, and it is unfair that such a smart and talented man's life has ended with so much living left to do.

I know Chris will be missed by the many people he touched in his life.

Good bye my friend.

“ I was fortunate to know Chris and work with him for the past five years. He was highly respected and widely liked by all who knew him. Along with many, I valued his intelligence, commitment and easy going humor that he brought to everything he did. Taken before his time, I join many others that will truly miss Chris as a friend and coworker.

“ We will always remember Chris as a brother. He was a kind man and an amazing father. His legacy will remain in his children. He will never be forgotten but rather loved and cherished for the memories we all shared with him. There are no words to express our sorrow. Heaven has gained a wonderful soul and we have lost a dear friend, brother, father, and loved one. Go with God Chris. We love you.

“ I was blessed to have developed a friendship with Chris, and I was privileged to have been a professional colleague over the past four years. Chris was truly a special person, and his brilliance, unique sense of humor, good nature, and collaborative spirit enabled him to distinguish himself from others. While his sudden and premature passing is devastating, his memory and personal legacy will last forever. Chris and his family are in my thoughts and prayers. Rest in peace to a special friend who left us far too early.
