

Clayton Leroy Johnson

May 7, 1931 - August 27, 2015

Clayton Leroy Johnson, 84, of Fort Myers passed away on Thursday, August 27, 2015. Clayton was born on May 7, 1931 in Conway, South Carolina to Malcolm and Edna Johnson. He moved to Ft. Myers in 1951. He worked at JC Penny's until he and his wife Wanda opened Fun Time Toys and Carousel Shop. After retirement, Clayton and Wanda split their time living in Ft. Myers and Burnsville, NC.

Clayton spent much of his life caring for others. After the death of his parents Clayton, at the age of 19, raised his four younger siblings. To his siblings he was a father, brother, advisor and friend. All who knew him dearly loved him. He was an artist, a quilter, a traveler and a collector. He accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior in 1968. He was a long time member and Deacon at McGregor Baptist Church. Clayton has been lovingly devoted to his wife for 55 years.

Clayton is survived by his wife Wanda Patch Johnson of Ft. Myers, Carl (Annice) Johnson of Chattanooga, TN, Collins (Rozelle) Johnson of Punta Gorda, sister-in-law Argean Johnson and many nieces and nephews. His sisters Anna Mae Skipper, Cora Engelhardt and Ellen Crump, brother Gee Johnson and brother-in-laws Charles Engelhardt, Drexel Crump and Jenks Skipper preceded him in death.

The service will be held at Barkley Place at 2:00 on Thursday, September 3rd in Fort Myers.

Tribute Wall

“ Clayton Leroy Johnson

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Clayton Leroy Johnson

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ My husband, Charles & I shopped in Clayton & Wanda's toy store, at the Boulevard Plaza, many years ago. We met them, again, at Barkley Place.
My condolences to the family.
Elaine C Gridley

Elaine C Gridley - August 29, 2015 at 01:29 PM