“ Very sorry to hear about Colby. He was a dear friend of mine in Middle School. He had a good heart and brought joy to many people. Nobody made me laugh harder than Colby and he was a very special person. Whether we were playing paintball, or just goofing around at the mall, Colby was always having fun and everybody loved him. Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers as we start 2018 without his fun loving spirit.

“ Colby worked for me part time at Catherine Hunting Interiors. He was a joy to be around. His love for life was contagious. I met Colby when he first arrived in Florida 5 years ago. Everyone should be proud of the man he become. He had a magnetic personality. RIP Colby, I will miss that beautiful smile.

“ I'm sorry for your loss have no idea what happened but he just showed up on my porch one day looking for my wife's little brother and I would see him come down the street all the time. He was always polite and respectful one of the few at his age. Sorry for your loss.

“ George and I were in Florida and saw Colby when he was a youngster. We have a picture or two of Colby & his grandfather by their pool. Colby & George were on the putting green & George told him that he should line the putt up by getting behind the ball and looking at the hole. Colby got behind the ball and laid on the ground to get a definite line. George told Colby that was one serious look. George told me at that time that he had the most natural golf swing for his age. We enjoyed the time we spent with Colby. As a youngster & and adult, Colby's love & trust in Sue & Rodney was special. They will keep all the memories of him close to their hearts. All those that knew and loved him, loved a gentle man.

“ My first nephew. My shadow as a child, my pride and joy. I was an uncle before most of my friends and nothing would come before my time with you and then you and your brothers. You were so talented. Nothing that you were not good at. When we would go to the beach, everyone would watch you do tricks, and even though you were the center of attention, you took the time to teach the little kids. In your short life you touched so many lives. So many people have been praying for you and all of us, because your magnetic personality and sweet demeanor, everyone loved you. I am so sad, I feel like i lost my son, i could not love you any more. I will carry the good memories with me only. Like when you killed the bat and saved the day, when you couldnt be thrown from the raft, when you scaled my house like spiderman, night golf when you had two birdies and then we lost your gucci sunglasses, when you helped me coach the boys or cut their hair. I have hundreds more. I would give anything for another brief moment with you. Your sons will be looked after forever and always. A tragedy for those of us you left behind, but a glorious heavenly kingdom will be yours forever. I know we will meet again, there is not a doubt in my mind. Two of my greatest loves have gone before me, so go rest high on that mountain, i will meet you there someday. Colby, I will pray for you everyday and I will love you always. Until we meet again, With love and respect, your Uncle.

“ Colby was the sweetest little boy. And his uncle Sonny really loved him. Sonny would come home in the evenings and tell me the cute things Colby got into and just laugh.
Now Sonny and Colby can catch up and keep each other company as they look over us left here to miss them.
Take comfort in knowing he is at peace and will be watching over his little ones as they grow.

“ You were my miracle baby. I loved you so much even before you were born. You had your daddy’s chin, you were the cutest baby, even chosen to be in the hospital brochure. You always loved to dress up in some costume from Batman to power rangers to Buzzlight year to Army men. And many many more. We just knew you were bound for great things. You would put those little cowboy boots on and your cowboy hat and sing to John Deere Green or the Brooks and Dunn song “Rock me world, little country girl” your words lol. When Chance come along you were the big brother and you loved him so much. You took care of him and helped me with him and then Conor. I probably put too much responsibility on you for such a little guy because you were the oldest. I’m sorry if I did. You loved so many things paintball, skating at Fryes Roller Rink with all your friends. That led to speed skating. Going golfing, they called you little tiger woods, then night golfing with Uncle Ricky, Fishing, tried modeling but was mostly interested in chasing the girls lol, loved camping out in the woods with your brothers. Your love for animals. I have Kitty Combs and Diamond from you. And you loved King so much he loved you too. Probably still wondering where you went. You have so many friends and family that love you and miss you and praying. You were living your life with the love of your life and the most amazing thing is that now you will live on in your boys. That love will live on in all of us. Oh what would we do if your Sue and Papaw wasn’t around to help us with all of this. I thank them from the bottom of my heart for all they have done for you in your life and in your death. Til I see you again, I love you forever and for always! I miss your beautiful smile ❤️💔🙏 Love, Mom

Oh Tammy, I'm in tears reading your tribute to Colby. Just heart breaking, I have thought about you, Rodney, Chance and Colby everyday. You feel very helpless to know there is nothing we can do to make the pain and hurt go away...I'm so sorry this happened and so sorry you have to go through something so heart breaking. Love you guys.
