

Csilla

July 19, 1979 - March 7, 2013

Csilla Key, 33, of Sarasota, Florida passed away peacefully March 7, 2013.

Csilla was born to us on July 19, 1979 in Budapest, Hungary. Csilla, which means "star" in her native language, truly lived up to the etymology of her namesake. She always was the beacon for her friends, a glorious glow for her family, and a forever shining light that will continue to lead her son to a life of love and happiness.

Csilla graduated from Esterhazy Karoly University. Soon after graduation, in 2003, she headed to Florida for a two week vacation which led to her staying indefinitely. It was Sarasota where Csilla decided to settle in and begin her career. She started in banking as teller and quickly advanced to a Licensed Relationship Banker. Csilla was genuine to her core, she made many dear friends within the bank, her church and the local Hungarian community. Csilla's true fulfillment in life came when she married her husband and became a mother.

Her loss is tragic for all, but we are thankful that her strength, light and spirit will live on in the many lives she touched.

"Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know that they are happy."

To cherish her loving memory, she leaves her husband, Aaron B Key; son, Ethan Izidor Key; father Andras Domoszlai; mother, Eva Daranyi, brother, Andras Domoszlai; mother-in-law, Roberta Sherman; sister-in-law, Tammy Key and a multitude of extended family and friends.

A catholic mass and memorial will be celebrated Saturday, March 16, 2013 at 1:30pm at St. Martha's Catholic Church and is open to all wishing to attend.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Csilla's memory may be made to benefit her son, Ethan Key, at any Chase branch.

“ *Rest in peace Csilla.
March 7, 2013, was an incredibly difficult day at work for everyone, and many of us will never forget you. Many of us felt like we lost a close friend that day.*

“ Your presence in the world was a gift to those who knew you. Your bubbly personality and drive for excellence was exhilarating. The Lord MUST have needed you badly to come for you so soon. Your beautiful spirit and zest for life will live through your son Nathan. Your love will continue to blossom in his steps.
