“ I too just learned of Cindy's passing. I moved from the Orlando area five years ago, but Cindy and I remained friends. She did have a heart of gold and she was my right hand person for several years when she and I managed some horse events and were on the Florida Horsemen's board. Guess not many people knew she did that too. I just thought of her tonight and wanted to send her a FB message...What a shock. But she and I had many many talks about the Lord and I will join her one day in a greater place than here...Will miss you Cindy.

“ I'm so blessed to see all the comments others have left here. It confirms the heart my aunt had. I will greatly miss Aunt Cindy, she was like a sister to me rather than an Aunt. I will miss our long talks about everything under the sun. It's so sad that life has ended so shortly for her but I'm finding peace knowing that I will have an angel constantly watching over me and my daughter, her great niece Shyanne. I thank all my family for taking care of the arrangements and I wish I could be in attendance. I hope everyone continues to post all the wonderful and positive things my aunt ever did for them. We truly lost a special person.
