

Daniel Janulis

April 21, 1957 - August 21, 2015

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ Daniel Janulis

---

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Daniel Janulis

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

GL

“ Dan was a dear friend of mine and I am grateful to have had the opportunity to have been able to call him my friend. I will always cherish the support and respect that he showed me over the 15 years of our friendship.

Here's a special moment that reflects the kindness that Dan displayed: Dan knew that I collected eagles as a hobby, and so one day he brought in a baseball cap with an eagle embroidered on the front as a gesture of friendship. That gesture of respect meant so much to me and does even to this day. I still have that cap and I will wear it at his upcoming life celebration knowing that he will appreciate it from his dimension.

Dan's laugh was infectious and he had an incredibly quick wit. He was also one who did not suffer fools lightly. He let you know what he really thought and tried his best to help anyone who was in need.

I am saddened by his passing, but reassured that his soul has been set free, and now he's serving as a protector of those he loved so very much. I miss my friend.

Godspeed.

---

Gary Lilly - September 11, 2015 at 02:56 PM

Buster Pasco

Beautifully said Gary. It really captured all that Dan was. I too will miss him greatly. He always was incredibly kind to me as well as others.

---

Buster Pasco - September 12, 2015 at 05:00 AM

Thank you, Buster. I really appreciated that you shared some of your memories of Dan with me yesterday at the memorial. That was very special. I miss him too. Be at peace, my friend. :)

Gary Lilly - September 14, 2015 at 07:00 PM

TJ

“ I knew Dan for over two decades - in fact at the original City Side location (on Neptune) He would come in after work, usually dressed in perfectly pressed shirts, and just breeze through acknowledging everyone with a smile. A good guy, who will be missed

Tom Joy

Tom Joy - September 07, 2015 at 05:08 PM

NL

“ Dan a very special man. He was always generous, Full of laughter. Which buy thy way you knew he was around when he laughed. Always willing to help friends out when needed. I knew Dan for at least 20 yrs. I will miss him dearly.

Nelson Lahayne - September 07, 2015 at 11:45 AM

BN

“ I always loved seeing Dan-The-Man at the football games. His loyalties were divided between his Beloved Chicago Bears and his adopted hometown of Tampa (Go Bucs). No matter what, he had a heart as big as all of the outdoors and would give anything, to anybody, if they needed Even if he didn't have it to give. You, Dan, will be, and are missed. Rest In Peace "with your full head of hair!" Yes, I can hear you laughing now.

Brian Neary - September 06, 2015 at 03:18 PM

TS

You my friend just finding out u r gone! We were a team in Chicago at 3 hotels together! We had south fun and u always made me laugh! U will be so missed my friend! RIP

teresa sablich - September 21, 2015 at 10:56 PM

MB

“ I sure miss him he was such a good friend and buddy I miss hanging out with him lots of love and Smoooooches

Margaret Bonkoski - September 05, 2015 at 10:08 PM

Buster Pasco

“ Dan was a good friend, a kind individual and good at heart person. His friendship meant a lot to me and he will be greatly missed. Rest in peace Dan.

Buster Pasco - September 04, 2015 at 07:43 PM