“ Today I'm thinking about you, your beautiful eyes, all of the sleep overs and trips to Portugal we took as a family. You were so funny, so sweet as a child and had so much inside of you still left to give. Life is so strange, almost crazy in a way. You left at such a young age and now we are all getting old. I know that your family loves you, I know that I love you and I'll always remember the words you said to me the last time we spoke, "I'm proud of you." I don't know why you said it or what made you think to say it, but you did and I needed it. I love you my little cousin, not so little anymore... you're shining on and we'll see you soon. Love you always, Maria

“ Darrell, you have been gone over a month now. I don't want to believe this. I loved you so much, I never stopped loving you. In my heart I always believed we would be together again. I look at Gia everyday and it breaks my heart, she is so much like you, and I tell her everyday how much you love her. Baby I love you and miss you so much. I want you to please watch over Gia and I.. I will see you again someday. Rest easy baby..
