

David Golden

July 27, 1984 - February 14, 2011

Brandon was born on July 27th 1984. He was only 26 years old when we lost him on February 14th 2011. He was born in Jacksonville, Florida to Charlotte Phillips and Bobby David. David Golden was a active father figure through out his life. He was a son, brother of Layce Boswell and James Gregory Boswell, and father of Haley Benson. He still had his paul paul James C. Phillips and mi-mi Gloria Phillips along with granny Joyce Phillips and Aunt Tammy Ball and Uncle Murray. He also had many Aunts, Uncles, and cousins on all sides of the family including his stepfathers side of David Golden that was always a dad in Brandons eyes. Brandon had many friends and Words can't explain how we will all miss him and he will always be loved by everyone of us. If you ever met him and really knew him you would understand. He was very talented with playing lead guitar, writing music and lyrics. He also could sing and cook up a dang good meal. He will forever live with-in all of us and in his music forever.

?Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? “ Brandon,
The last couple of days with you were the best days of my life. The moment I met you, I fell for you. I hope you had a great time at Pineapple's and Watching the sunset on the beach together and laughing together. I will cherish the time we had together. You blow me away with your music. When I was sitting next to you at the guitar shop, I was so happy to see you with your big smile on your face jamming out and doing your thing. The little girl you sang to (How Wonderful You Are) will always remember you, as will I, and everybody who loved you. I love you, and always will. God bless you. Kisses. Kath

“ B, I'm still in shock to hear that you're gone. I know that we grew apart over the last few years, but, I still consider you a friend. After all, if it weren't for you and Amanda, Jessie and I would have never met, nor would we have been blessed with our two beautiful children. I wish we could have hung out once more or you and Jessie could have had one last jam session. You've been taken too soon from all of us. I'm so sorry for the loss that Hayley and your mother and the rest of your family and friends are going through right now. I hope you're tearin up the guitar in Heaven. Rest in Peace, B. We'll miss you.

“ I remember meeting brandon when he was 14 and I was 15. I was blown away at how great he was at guitar. He loved Van Halen so much he would sit and learn all of those songs just to show me that he knew them. Such a funny person too so we clicked and became great friends from there on. I could write a book with the stories I have of him. From my Dad buying his Kiss ticket so he could go with us in 00' to him jumping in my jacuzzi New Years Eve 07' fully clothed. He is the first "Real" friend I've lost and I wish I could have spent more time the last year with him. I'll never forget David Brandon Golden!

“ *When loss and grief have torn apart
The world we thought we knew
Words never seem to be enough
For things we can't undo
So I'll just say a silent prayer
For what may comfort you
The solace of warm memories
That last a lifetime through
The sympathy that others feel
Who share your sorrow too
The knowledge that the one you love
Is with the angels who
In kind and tender mercy
Will be watching over you*
-Jill Wolf

“ What does one say at a time like this. Brandon always had a smile whenever I saw him. He had a long life in front of him it's a shame that it came to and end so early in his life. He was just getting his life all lined up and was going to do great things. I pray for his mother that she will be blessed with all the good memories that Brandon and she shared and will remember that one day she will be with him again.
