David Guevara was born in November 7th, 1958 in Honduras. He grew up with his three sisters; Yolanda, Gloria, Blanca, and with two brothers; Arnaldo and Isreal. He had left his wife and kids in Honduras to come to the United States to help maintain them. He had six kids; Jenny, Karen, Teresa, Cinthia, David and Alejandra. He worked as a construction worker. He was always a good father, brother, uncle, and man. You can always see a smile on his face that would light up the room. He was known for being loyal and a family man. He was always by his mother, Teresa, side. Whenever he could he was there for her. We always knew we can count on him. He was everybody's shoulder to cry on and hand to help. He spent his final month saying his farewells to his loved ones. He decided to leave the hospital so he can go at peace in his home, with his family on November 29th 12:15 am. “ Tio gracias por siempre estar alli por mi y por toda la familia, por ser como un segundo padre para todos nosotros. Se que has de estar feliz donde quieras que estes porque ya llegaste a Honduras junto a tu bella esposa y tus queridos hijos y que ellos se van a poder despedir de ti como tu siempre lo deseaste. Te extraño muchisimo tio pero se que ahora estas en un mejor lugar y sin dolor y eso me hace sentir mas tranquila aunque aun eso no hace que mi dolor por haberte perdido se me quite. Tio te dio adios pero no es para siempre porque se que muy pronto estaremos juntos de nuevo y gozaremos la vida como siempre lo hemos hecho la diferencia es que va hacer en lugar mas lindo y feliz que este. Te quiero muchisimo tio....
