“ Dear Debbie, Randy and Ron:

I'm sorry to hear about Uncle Dave's passing. I always remember visiting while in Mountain Home. He was such fun to be around and made us laugh all the time. We loved going down to your house! Though we didn't see each other very much, he was always so kind and welcoming. May your memories offer you peace.

Love, Trista Mrva-Neubauer and family (Ed and Diane's daughter)

“ Dearest Debbie, Ron & Randall,

I was really saddened to hear about Uncle Dave's death. I have really wonderful memories of him. One of the first things he did when we would arrive to their Mt. Home place was to ask "how-ya-doin, Jen" - and then he would always offer us a drink - "ya want somethin' ta drink?". I adored his rusty voice - with his prominent Chicago accent. He was a warm, generous, strong-willed, fun-loving man. He definitely was one of a kind! Although distance unfortunately kept us from seeing each other much, I'm going to miss him dearly.

I am really sorry for your loss. I hope that you and your families cherish the good memories of this wonderful man forever.

Much love,

Jennifer Swift Flatz with Andy, Selina & Leander (Carol's daughter)
