

Dawn Marie Rich

March 30, 1965 - March 25, 2023

We are sad to announce the passing of our dearly loved Wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend Dawn Marie Rich. Dawn died on March 25th, 2023 from sudden cardiac arrest following complications from a long battle with diabetes. Dawn lived her life loving her husband Chris, daughter Nichelle, and their fur babies in Sarasota Florida where she enjoyed warm weather, the beautiful sunshine and especially sunsets at Turtle Beach. She loved cats, shopping and crafting of all sorts. Dawn is survived by her loving husband Chris Rich, her daughter Nichelle Wassinger, Debbie (Mike) Gallagher, Larry Profit, Melissa (Andy) Croiser, Brian Profit, Preston Profit and her sister Tamielee (John) Sutherland who will always remember her as “Dawnie”. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews. Dawn was predeceased by her parents Larry and Linda Profit, grandparents Floyd and Harriet Profit, her mother-in-law Miss Sue, and a niece Elizabeth Brean Profit-Sutherland. There will be a private celebration of life in Dawn's memory this summer for family and close friends. In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to “Sugars Gift” at sugarsgift.org

“ Dawn, I've been so blessed having you as my friend for more than 30 years. Riding bikes, going for walks, talking, lauging... no matter what we did, the friendship was always there. Friends come and go, but the real ones will always be there. And you my dear friend, were and always will be one of those real ones... even from Heaven. I love you and I miss you. Rest in Peace my friend.
