

Deborah Dawne Maclam

February 2, 1949 - July 14, 2019

Deborah “Debbie” Dawne Maclam, 70, passed away in her Cape Coral home on July 14th 2019. She was born in Marion, Ohio, February 2nd 1949 to Roy Eugene and Anna Marie Briggs. She married Patrick C. Maclam May 6th 1972 and lived a treasured life for 43 years before his passing in March 2015. Together they raised 2 children: Jennifer Cutteridge who married Stephan Cutteridge; and Shawn Maclam who is married to Erica Maclam. She was very proud of her 5 grandchildren: Morgan Eugene 17, Alyson Brooke 16, Nathanael Stephen 12, Garrett Patrick 9 and Harper Grace 1. She is also survived by one brother Michael James Briggs of Boca Raton, Florida. Her brother Douglas Allen Briggs preceded her in death. Debbie graduated from Pleasant View High School in 1967. She was retired from Publix after 15 years of service but spent most of her adult life as a homemaker. She faithfully attended church at CityGate Ministries. She had a few hobbies of interest: drawing, reading, watching movies, scrap-booking, collecting owls and believe it or not a playing a few video games. She treasured holidays and anytime her family was all together. She was passionate about keeping traditions alive. Her son, Shawn, said it best, “Those who knew her well know how big her heart was. Due to hurts from her childhood she protected it well, but for those she did expose it to, know how truly precious and genuine she was!” She will truly be missed by those of us who were privileged to know and love her. Debbie’s memorial service will be held Monday, July 22nd, 6 p.m. at City Gate Ministries, 1735 Jackson Street, Fort Myers, Florida 33901.
