“ Dearest Sirley & Dave Debbie is at peace now, free of pain & suffering. It is so sad that she is gone ,so young but the Lord said, that her purpose on earth was done & it was time to go home to Him. Take comfort in the joyous memories & happy times. GOD'S blessings to you & your family. Sending HUGS your way. WITH LOVE ED & EDIE

“ Aunt Shirley, Dave, & Ted Jr. ...It's so hard to put into words about Debbie's passing. That's why it's until now I see no words will ever be enough to take away your sadness; which I'm also feeling. I know she is free of her pain & truly in a better place. I'm also grateful that I was able to see her the last time you were here in Buffalo; though it was another sad time in our family's history. You are all in our prayers!

“ It is hard to believe you are gone-I never met someone so full of life. We had so much fun at the CFR retreat being the "bad girls". I felt like I knew you forever, and I will miss you like that as well. Praying for you and those who love you. ALC

“ She is at peace now wrapped in the loving arms of our Lord, a bright wonderful spark that still glitters in the great sky above. I can only be thankful that she has been freed from pain and suffering. She touched us all at last year's Casting For Recovery retreat in Titusville and we will not forget her. I send my sincere and deepest condolences to her family and many friends. I only knew her briefly but her courage and beauty will be a lasting memory.

Sincerely

“ Blessings and Peace in this transition for your family. We never met in this life even though you fought your battles in my high school town; and I live in GA near your birthplace. With tremendous respect for the career path you chose and the battle you fought, I wish for your family Serenity

“ My sweet little sister. The unconditional love which we have shared together from the time we were children playing on a swingset in our yard in western New York through the very last moments which we shared together yesterday has been something which I will cherish forever. Witnessing the manner in which you handled your fight with this horrible illness for over three years was truly inspirational to us all. Never complaining, not once, even when the pain became unbearable, did you complain about it. My heart is broken but knowing that you are not suffering any longer is a blessing. You touched so many lives in a positive way. I will miss your beautiful smile and tender heart so very much.
