“ Dear Russell: Adrian and I were so sorry to hear of Debbie's death. We only met once but I talked to her over the phone a few times. Even then her sweet way and warmth for people came across. We are so sorry for your loss.

“ *Dear family of Deborah
I am sorry for the loss of your loved one. I wish to share with you comfort from the scriptures.
Jesus well knew the Bible statement:" Time and unforeseen occurrence befall them all"[Ecclesiastes 9:11]. He knew that sometimes bad things just happen.
The wonderful future resurrection hope is the promise found at John 5:28,29.
Revelation 21:3,4 states that death will be no more. and pain will be no more, the former things will have passed away.
Our Creator, Jehovah God, by means of his son Jesus, is going to undo the sad events that touch our lives today.

“ Dear Russell, Scuffy & the Straino family:

Our Sincere sadness goes out to all of you. Debbie was always known to me as ?The Caribbean Girl? with such a zest for life and her love for everyone. I always enjoyed our conversations. May all of you find comfort in your memories and know that she is watching over you. This is such a devastating loss to all of you. As well as this community! Russell we are praying for you “ Debbie Striano was truly one of those kind, patient and friendly people that we are lucky to ever know. She always took the time to say hello, smile, and genuinely ask how you were doing. Her gentle way is one that we see in Earthly Angels so I believe, she must have been one. Now she will be a Heavenly Angel. I pray that she is surrounded with beautiful white light and will watch over Russell and Scruffy. Actually, I know she is. Love and Light sent your way too Debbie. I so enjoyed our last conversation we shared about angels, our souls, what this life must be all about, etc. Thank you for sharing your kindness and energy in our lives. We miss you here already.
