“ She was more than just a Mother to me, she was my best friend, my hero. Her passion for life and her commitment to serving others was like nothing I have ever known. I would be so lucky as to reflect even a small portion of her strength and character. Not one day went by that my Mom didn't remind me of how much she loved me. My Mom always looked out for my best interest, she was my gaurdian, my protector. She always said she felt like she depended on me too much, that she felt like I took care of her when she should have been taking care of me. What she didn't realize was that being able to be there for her, to offer comfort, and reassurance as she did for me all of my life, was an honor, and never a burden. I hope that she knows that, and I hope that she knows how much I love her. I am going to miss her dearly, but I know she will always be with me. Until we meet again, love you Mom. XO

“ You had such a beautiful smile and a big heart. My fondest memory is from Christmas 1992 when we spent Christmas at a hotel on the beach in Naples, FL with our kids. It was our first Christmas as single parents and we had such a wonderful time. Now, you are an Angel, sharing your beautiful smile and big heart in Heaven. You touched many lives including mine. I will miss you, but will not forget you.
