

Delris Rebecca Smith

August 24, 1941 - April 27, 2012

Delris Rebecca Smith (nee Morrison) was born on August 24, 1941 in Yahallas, St. Thomas, Jamaica W.I. Nurtured and cared for by Joseph & Harriet Walker, she attended Yahallas High School. Soon after high school, she met Valentino Smith to whom she was married to for 47 years out of the 53 years she was with him. The union produced 8 children. Mummy as she is affectionately known was a beacon of light within her community of White Hall, where she was not only a housewife, but a pillar of strength and hope to many, where she is known for her humanitarianism. She was an ardent peacemaker and a lover of people. She set a standard of giving and sharing, especially her treasured rum cakes and buns, which she freely gave with a smile. Mummy migrated with her family to Chicago in 1983 to allow her children the opportunity to experience the American dream. She worked effortlessly, settling in as a film inspector at Films Incorporated until she retired. After retiring she partnered with her husband Valentino to form the Original VS Insurance Agency in Chicago. A devout Catholic, she was a member of Our Lady of Peace Church in Chicago for 27 years, before relocating to Lehigh Acre last October, where she joined the St. Raphael's Church family. Mummy is preceded in death by her two sons Yuri Smith (1994) and Knolly Smith (2000). She is survived by her husband of 47 years Valentino Smith; Children: Angella & Andrea Smith, Frantz Smith, Arlene Smith, Alwayne Smith, Sheron Smith; Her Grand-children who were dear to her heart: Hugh, Sheika, Taylor, Sheriffa, Kadeem, Alexander, Demar, Francine, La Rhone, Frantz Jr, Yuri, Sashette, AnnMarie, Knolly Jr, Sasha, Antoine, Shknolly, Michael, Knala, Kendall, Babashola, Ashley, Christopher and Matthew; Her Great grand children; Brother, Oswald Walker and his children Sam and Hope; a host of In-laws, numerous friends within the White Hall, Chicago and Lehigh Acres communities.
