

Donna Dee Isbell

July 12, 1935 - December 7, 2019

Donna Dee Davis boarded the glory train and went home to Jesus on December 7, 2019, at age 84.

Donna was born to Frank Bruce Davis and Mary Emily Barber Davis on July 12, 1935, in Lake Orion, Michigan. She was the youngest of seven children; sisters Lois (Havens), Bessie (Davis), Ilah (Havens), Jessie (Kelch); brothers Murray (Davis), and Larry (Davis).

Donna was a clerical worker at General Motors when she met the love of her life, Harvey Isbell. They married on July 26, 1961, and together raised their daughter, Dawn Renee Kopp. Harvey and Donna spent the majority of their lives in Waterford, Michigan, but loved to travel in their 5th-wheel trailer. After Harvey's retirement from General Motors, they left Michigan, and lived in Hendersonville, North Carolina before settling permanently in Zephyrhills, Florida. Harvey and Donna moved to Fort Myers, Florida to live closer to family in 2009.

In addition to being a dedicated and loving mother, Donna also loved crafting. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, scrapbooking, and making creations with plastic canvas. She loved to share her creative passions with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren, who share her love of crafting. Harvey and Donna shared a passion for classic automobiles, Boston Terrier dogs, birds, and nature.

Throughout her life, Donna held an unwavering faith in God, which she shared with those who surrounded her. She had a heart for missions and a great love of Israel. Over the years, she was a dedicated Sunday School Teacher, directed the Missionettes and Christian Youth Crusader Programs, and served as Secretary of her church. Donna was a member of First Assembly of God in Fort Myers, Florida at the time of her passing.

Donna was preceded in death by her beloved Harvey (2011), her parents, all of her siblings, her great-granddaughter Taylor Goetterman (2018), and family dog Sammy. She is survived by her daughter, Dawn (John) Kopp; grandchildren Nicole (Eric) Goetterman, Sandra (Brent) Ryan, David (Kandis) Hawkins, Stephen Travis Lee Sloan, Jennifer Kopp, Michael Kopp; great-grandchildren Keenan Goetterman, Samantha Goetterman, Grace White, Damian Thompson, Hunter Kopp, and Michael Kopp.
