“ I never thought I could miss someone so much. I never knew a type of sadness like this. sense i lost my mom, my whole life has changed. I just wish i could have one more second with you, just to hear you say i love you one more time. You had love for everyone, you could turn a frown to a smile in no time no matter how bad things sucked. You made the best food, anything i wanted, anytime. You always made sure everyone had a good time, and if we wernt you would change that. You were the sun in my world, always happy and shining in every situation. Mom, i love you. Its terrible that your gone, and i have no idea how im still going on without you but now i have a gardien angel that is watching over me. People say heaven is what you make it but i know i dont have to make mine, cause your there. Love you momma

“ Sister, Wow! It has been a week since I heard the news. I love and miss you so much everyday. You were more than my sister, you were a second mother and a friend. Part of me still doesn't believe this is real. I want to see the old you. When you did nothing but smile and cook those dinners that fed an army :). See you in that old house with the kids running around and Bubba sitting on the counter eating corn. I want to wake up from this dream, but I know I won't. I hate that Landon will never know his Auntie or that your grandkids will never see their Mimi again, but don't worry they know you are on a plane to meet the angels. I hate how our last conversation went.. But what helps is I know you are at peace and no longer suffering or in pain. I know you are watching over the people who truly loved you and will never forget you. I love you sister and I know you will meet me one day with that big smile and wrap your arms around me. Until then please help give me strength to help mom and Ashley, Bubba & Brandy through this, along with everyone who will miss you. I love you.. p.s were fluffy

“ I wish I wasn't writing this. Donna you were taken away so young and beautiful. Its hard to believe I will never get to talk with you again and share stories about my babies and your babies. I know you loved your children so much and were so proud to be a mimi.. It seems like just yesterday you were holding my baby girl and talking about your newest grandbaby.. I remember the times you watched my girls for me so I could visit my mom in the hospital.. You were an amazing person and we all miss you. My heart goes out to Bubba, Brandy, Ashley,and your grandbabies.. My deepest symphany to all of your family. Rest in peace Sweet Donna.
