“ Oh, how I miss you...

For those who may not know, Doreen was one of the most consequential people in my life. She introduced me to her daughter, the love of my life and my wife, Beverly, in 2003. Bev and I have been married now for 20 years next March, and I will be forever thankful to Doreen for bringing Bev into my life.

Doreen was caring, generous, funny, and someone I considered to be a true optimist. She was always encouraging and pointing out the bright side of things, and she spoke her mind truthfully and honestly. One look at her Facebook page and you can see how much she loved LIFE, her fur-babies, coffee, and, of course, the beach.

But most of all, she loved her husband Mark and the rest of her family. Whether vacationing at the beach, gathering for dinner at a favorite restaurant, cruising on a ship, or just lounging in the pool, she loved spending time with family, and we always had a great time with her. She had a kind and loving spirit, and I will miss her deeply.

Thank you, Doreen, for being such a wonderful part of my life and welcoming me into your family. I hope you are now relaxing on the most beautiful beach ever...

I love you and miss you.
