

Edgar Ross Black

May 23, 1941 - May 6, 2026

Edgar Ross “Jesse” Black

E.R. “Jesse” Black , 84, of Okeechobee, passed away on Wednesday, May 7th at Hope

Hospice of Lehigh Acres, FL. He was born on Friday, May 23, 1941 in Summerdale, PA to the late Stanley S. Black, Sr. and Helen R. (Cook) Black. He was predeceased by two previous wives, Concetta (Ciranello) Chandler of Port Charlotte, FL and Raeann

(Costik) Black of Elizabethtown, PA.

Jesse owned and operated several small businesses over the years, serving the greater

Harrisburg, PA area with motor oils, lubricants, and greases for the automotive and industrial industries.

He will be missed by his son David Black and daughter-in-law Rachel of Etters, PA, nieces and nephews, as well as extended family and caring friends. The youngest of four children, he was predeceased by two sisters, Delores Essig and Shirley Doslin and a brother, Stanley Black Jr.

He enjoyed motorcycles and all types of automobile racing. He competed in Ice Racing, Motorcycle racing, and Sports Car racing with the Sports Car Club of America.

He

enjoyed traveling the country in his truck camper, visiting Alaska, New England, and all points in between.

Tribute Wall

AM

“ I met Jesse thru camping with the Northeast Trucking Camping Jamboree. So sorry to hear of his passing.

Annie Marcy - June 12 at 05:19 AM

PH

“ Jesse, you always told me "me Black, I i have no wings, I cant fly". You have wings now. Fly high, buddy. Til we meet again, miss and love ya! Patty

Patty Halstead - May 08 at 03:52 PM