

Edith G. Miller

April 14, 2012

Edith G. Miller, 86, of Fort Myers, passed away Saturday, April 14, 2012 surrounded by her loving family. She was a loving wife to Robert F. Miller for 69 years. Edith will be remembered for her incredible ability to play nearly any instrument by ear. She had a passion for music, especially in the company of her family and friends. In addition to her husband, Edith is survived by her son, Robert (Joyce) Miller; 2 grandchildren, James (Reneé) Miller and Jeffrey (Rainy Hoy) Miller; and 3 great grandchildren, Jacob, Alexis and Jayden. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated 9am, Friday, April 20, 2012 at St. Vincent De Paul Catholic Church 13031 Palm Beach Blvd, Fort Myers, FL 33905. Memorial contributions may be made in her memory to the church. To sign the register book and to share a memory, visit www.andersonpatterson.com.

“ Uncle Bob, Bobby, Joyce, grandkids and great grandkids, we are sending our deepest sympathy to each and everyone of you. May you find comfort in knowing that Aunt E. is at peace and smiling down on all of us. She was a wonderful aunt, funny, silly, and always fun to be around. We will cherish the times we spent together in Ft. Myers at our picnics on the beach. We will keep you in our prayers. Love ~Tom & Sherry

“ Our sympathy is with you all; we loved Aunt Edie and will always have fond memories of playing golf (Aunt Edie rules) at Chrystal Lake, enjoying your beautiful home on Platte Lake, floating down the Platte River from your store, polka dancing to Aunt Edie on the accordion and organ. She was always fun and loving, and enjoyed her loving husband and family so much.

“ My deepest sympathy to all Edith's family, relatives and friends. Edith is my first cousin,..I recall In 1958, I was living with my husband (Ben) in California. Edith and Bob lived in Escondido,and invited us to dinner [Bob's caught abalone] Edith greeted us on the front lawn playing her accordian!! What a thrill!! Both sang in Slovenian at Bobby's and Joyces wedding reception while Edith played a banged up piano,...Enjoyed the music non the less!!! God Bless to all,..much Love Annie (Resner) MacNeill.
