“ I just want everyone who reads this to know that Eddie was more than a son-in-law to us. He was a great guy and a best friend and we concered him a son. We miss him more than we can say and are thankful for the 14 years he was in our lives. He treated our daughter better than we could have asked for. He was a daddy like no other. He left us to soon. We will miss him more than anyone can imagine. Rest in peace dear son rest in peace. Mom and Dad

“ We met Eddie, Dawn and kids at Yogi Bear camp ground. Eddie came in as a category 2 hurricane and left out as a category 5. Everyone who met him really like him alot. He was one of a kind. A white guy, A black guy and a horse walk into a bar. The bartender ask the horse. Why such a long face? Horse replies. My buddy Eddie Died!

“ I still remember when I first met your amazing family?Caitlin was dressed to the nines with her adorable new purse; Eddie Jr. was very polite?yet there was obvious fire in his eyes; and you and Eddie Sr. were very proud and concerned parents. You both wanted to ensure your children were safe and in a nurturing environment. As the years progressed, I was honored to get to know your amazing family and watched as each milestone your children reached, you and Eddie Sr. glowed with such pride. Eddie will be gravely missed; however his warmth, inspiration, and motivation will live on strongly within his beautiful family. You all hold a very special place in my heart and I am here for anything you need. Wrapping my arms tightly around you and your family and sending all of my love.

“ Dawn, Caitlin and Eddie Jr.,
As I sit here typing this to you, I still can't believe Eddie is really gone. My heart breaks for you and the children. I know how much Eddie loved all of you and can honestly say, any time I was around your family, the love you all shared for one another was as clear as day. I will never forget his amazing sense of humor and words of wisdom, but most importantly I will never forget how highly he always spoke of you.
