“ I'm so sorry for your loss of your Mother, Elaine was the only Sister-in-law I ever Liked. I was so proud of her when she changed her life around later on in life. She did whatever it took to get you kids back. She loved her grandkids as much as I love mine. They ment the world to her. The Last Happy memories I have of her is our trip to Niagara Fall, Canada in 2007. We both had a great time there with my grandkids. It's hard to imagine life without your mom being there for you, but with time, it does get easier, you'll see, and one day your kids will be going through the same thing with you all, its called the cycle of life. Anyway I love you all, stay in touch Love, Aunt Brenda
