

Elaine Fanny Farmer Ruckle

May 4, 1937 - December 19, 2012

Elaine Fanny Farmer Ruckle, age 75, lost her 7 year battle with Alzheimer's disease and went on to be with our Lord Jesus Christ December 19, 2012. Elaine was born May 4, 1937 in Penfield, NY, was the wife of Ralph Ruckle and loving mother of Jimmy, Marie and Michelle. Elaine was one of 8 beautiful sisters: Rita, Sylvia, Lynne, Maryanne, Carolee, Gloria and Darla. She was also grandmother to 12 wonderful grandchildren: Pat, Buffie, Chris, Zach, Cassie, Zachary, Haley, Josh, Lacey, Mason, Maddy and Sayde; as well as 4 great grandchildren. Elaine was a seamstress most of her life and an amazing self taught pianist. She enjoyed singing with her sisters and passed on her love and gift of music to many of her children and grandchildren. Elaine was a loving, caring, hard working, feisty, sometimes stubborn and full of "muchness" little lady with a bit of ornery on the side. She loved the Lord and her family and loved to laugh with all her heart. She enjoyed cropping, crafting and spending time with her loved ones. Her presence will be immensely missed, her love celebrated and her memory forever cherished by all those that had the privilege and honor of knowing and loving her. A memorial gathering will be held from 6-7pm on Sat., Dec. 22, 2012 at the Anderson-Patterson Cremation & Funeral Services chapel, 3654 Palm Beach Blvd., Fort Myers, FL. A celebration of life service will begin at 7pm with Pastor Kenneth Griffith officiating. Please visit www.andersonpatterson.com to express online condolences by signing the guest book.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I remember what a lovely spiritual person she was and how much her family meant to her. Elaine worked with me at Classic Cleaners as a seamstress and I appreciated the excellent work that she did as well as the loving and cheerful attitude she always displayed. Linda Neubauer
