*Hi Ellie,
I just wanted to tell you how much Nick misses and loves you. I do as well. I loved you like my own mother. I am still making good on my promise to you. We are brothers through great times and hard times. We have definitely made it to the other side of being the best of friends and brothers. I know you are watching us and laughing as we laugh about all the things you said & did that made us laugh and cry. You were the Best of the Best. We all love & miss you. I hope you Carrie & my dad are having the best time in heaven ❤️❤️🙏
Got Elvis on for you.*

I will not be leaving anymore messages on the site, I was going to cancel it but Kathy wants to keep it.I will be moving away as soon as I pay my bills and sell the house.so I was to see you with Kevin and sue and we hope the ashes mingled like they are supposed to. I said goodbye fr the 4th time now I have to try to make myself a place in life.. I am going to leave this area and try to not put the burden on the girls or Kevin. See you when it's over. can't believe I will be 71. Christian mingle has taught me to pray the people are so nice, I have been blessed to meet some of them now. men and woman most are widowed.I always told you I never had anything when I started and I will have nothing when I pass but that is life, Astep parent is a special parent he love's someone else's children and elects to do so. that is special and I see it is a good thing. “ Hello Mom, It has been a rough year without you, as you know after giving most of my life to supporting and taking care of you, I was thrown out of my house which I paid off with you in 2006, and continued to pay rent for all the years since. I am so glad you told me that when you passed I would need to defend myself against those that were jealous of me my whole life, it saddens me to think that all your cherished possessions were pawned for trips to the Hard Rock or Christian Mingle outings, I'm so glad others on this board have used and abused me and when I was at my lowest point in life told me to get out, I know you see what is going on and told me and other's that this is exactly what was going to happen when you passed thanks for being a great Mother and always protecting me even after you left. I will always love you until we meet again.

Love Nick Xoxo

“ Ok Eleanor it has been a year at 2: 15 am since you left me. Have had just one awful year. Not only alone but thing's that we spoke of have come true. I am sure you no. I Have signed a paper and giving away another chunk of money. Hopeing that I can survive on my ss income, I know that it will be difficult the house will never sell at the price it would have years ago. So I am old now and I can do what I have to. I have been blessed with now having the girls and Kevin and Sue, also enjoying seeing the kids at the ball games. Steven and Kevin have so much respect for there parents it is so nice to be around I have been around Sebby now and watching him play ball is fun. Maybe I can make a trip to new York to see Kathy while I am still able. My arthritis is just getting bad. I have some friends from christiann Mingle but I can not replace you . It seems after 42 years life has really gone by. Ok for now I will say my prayers tonight and think of you.. goodnight. your loving Husband Frank

“ Well Eleanor it has been a year of nothing but stress. I still have the big house and just have to down size. My problems continue with each Day. I know you are looking and see I have had Know time to really grieve, I think about you everyday. I have been going to Christian mingle to find friends but that is not working for me . I guess age has passed me by. I have been told by some that they will take me to court and I thank god I have the support of most of the family. The roof is still leaking I continue to fix but it is patch here and patch there. After a while you just want to give up. I know I will pass alone and I really don't care anymore I just want it to happen fast. Alone is just not very good. I am going to try to move to a small mobile home and finish my days there. Nick is finally Moving out after I paid whatever I could about half of what I have. He just has stressed me to know end. I will paint and clean and get the house ready I prayer it will sell soon. I am happy that you Did not have to go through this with me because you could not have done it. My health continues to be ok but each day I notice it is not really good. Trying to be happy is impossible. Had to bring Heggie in to help with the cost but it is very hard to find yourself in this position in life after working so hard all those years. I talk allot with Kevin and sue they have become a big help for me. Debbie and linda call and Kolleen and Kathy. I have been down with the flu but I will get past it soon. I am loosing the fight to live I have never felt this way. Hoping that there is a place in heaven for me I can sure use the rest. So keep the angels cleaning up heaven and get my nesting place ready. lost in the world Frank

“ Our 43th yr will be here tuesday, seems quite now. had a nice time at the festival. I paid for some children to play a game and the little girl won a pink teddy bear. I new the mother had no money so I said the bear should be named ellie and the girl said great. so you have an ellie bear now. Nick and melinda and I walked everywhere, I was lucky last month and won a big scratch off ticket you would have been excited I was and nick to. Money comes back to those who wait. god was good to me. have been seeing alot of the kids kevin sue, koll and paul Debbie and linda. have spoken to kathy alot and also Jeanie, your sister misses you very much..I try to speak with her like you did so she is not so alone. well another saturday night alone in this big house , hard to take. maybe you can help me get a buyer and I can down size. I keep remembering looking at you when it happened. very tuff for me. I saved you so many times I feel Guilty I couldn't do it again. everyone seems to be getting buy this. I am going to give Nick what he Needs for you like we dicussed, when I sell. than everyone will be ok. Love always happy 43th. Frank.

“ To Frank and all of Ellie's children I wanted to extend my condolences.
I have known your family over 30 years and came to truly understand Ellie when I became disabled myself. I never knew the strength it took to accept and overcome physical obstacles on a daily basis as a way of life. When seeking motivation that it could be done, I often thought of her, doing it with 7 kids. I know she didnt make it easy for any of you but while you were navigating the obstacles she created, in her attempt to still have control over something, she was climbing mountains just to survive. She did an amazing job as all of you are kind, compassionate people any mother would be proud of.
From above she will always be watching you as you are safe beneath her wings.

Angela Briguglio - November 16, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Good evening Ellie,
We were getting ready for dinner tonight and felt a bit lost. Usually we speak with you just before or right after dinner. Then, we remembered, we don't have to pick up the phone because you are with us all the time now. The other day we visited the public library and as we were leaving, there was a beautiful mother duck and her ducklings. This reminded us of you and your 7 ducklings and how you kept them in line with loving care. I thought it was funny how Kathy mentioned Ellie keeping her ducks in a row. It's another affirmation that we are one and that there is one Holy Spirit. A mother duck always leads the way for her babies, making sure their path is clear, waiting for those that may lag behind, and not eating until those babies are all fed. Always caring for them before caring for herself and taking on much bigger battles than her size would allow. Ellie you were a beautiful duck and your flock grew strong and healthy. P.S. We had leftover spaghetti!

“ I was talking with my older brother, Kevin, a few days ago. We both agreed and were happy that Ellie's pain was over. I said 'Ellie got a new set of wheels' but that didn't cut it because it reminded me of all the years she spent in a wheel chair and/or a motorized scooter. Kevin said 'I saw mommy dancing in Heaven with her father and when the dance was over, she leaped up and clicked her heels together'. Later that same day, I got a call from Ellie's sister, aunt Jean. I couldn't help but share this story with her. We both agreed it couldn't get any better than that! Then, she told me that grandpa was a wonderful dancer and loved to dance the Waltz. That brought a smile to my face and again, another affirmation of the one Holy Spirit given to us from God as our helper. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble (Psalm 46:1).

“ Years ago I said to mom, at a low point in my life, I felt as though I had missed my mark in life, that I wanted to serve the Lord as a pastor or minister?.Ellie immediately spoke to my spirit and said don?t kid yourself, you have been out there on the front lines in this life serving Him and ministering to others all along. I instantly felt better about myself because she was so right. Christ is in me, I am a soldier in the army of the Lord?A foot soldier, the feet and hands and mouthpiece of Jesus. All my years spent in the service business not only served me well, but served the body of Christ? Leave it to a great mother to make her child smile no matter what age or station in life? I am a Minister of The Gospel Crusade International, after spending 3 years as a student. I don?t know who knew first, so many years ago, that some sort of Priest or Minister was in the family. I think Mom knew before I did. One thing for certain though is, God knew. Most of my conversations with Ellie were spiritual to say the least; we had that kind of connection. Recently I spoke with my Pastor and told him about my last visit with my mom. That Saturday night before she died, I had a long conversation with her, though she could not speak I knew she could hear and knew it was me. After I ran out of things to say I quoted scripture I had memorized over the years. After I could quote scripture no longer I sang to her?Amazing Grace and other Christian songs. It was amazing for both of us. Somehow I think God brought me through Ellie, for such a time as this?.To bring her peace, to help her transition, and to trust Him, and not be afraid?..I am so proud of you Mom, you taught me well?.Till we meet again, save me a dance, on the golden streets of heaven. I?m so glad that His word is true and never fails, because I didn?t share with you my thoughts, but His. Luv ya, Thomas

FOOTPRINTS

One night I dreamed a dream.

I was walking along the beach with my Lord. Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life. For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to me and one to my Lord.

When the last scene of my life shot before me I looked back at the footprints in the sand and to my surprise I noticed that many times along the path of my life there was only one set of footprints. I realized that this was at the lowest and saddest times of my life.

This always bothered me and I questioned the Lord about my dilemma. "Lord, you told me when I decided to follow You, You would walk and talk with me all the way. But I'm aware that during the most troublesome times of my life there is only one set of footprints. I just don't understand why, when I needed You most, You leave me." He whispered, "My precious child, I love you and will never leave you never, ever, during your trials and testings. When you only saw one set of footprints it was then that I carried you."

There is no need for Ellie to be carried any longer. For she has a new spiritual body and is dancing on streets of gold with her father, mother, brothers, and other relatives that have gone on to be with the Lord before her.

I'll see you again in paradise. Love, Thomas

“ My thoughts are with your family, Frank. I had hoped to meet Eleanor one day but do enjoy seeing the pictures. A beautiful lady with a loving family. May the Lord comfort you all.

“ I am so sorry for your loss, all of you. Ellie was a wonderful, beautiful and funny woman! Always loved to crack a joke...Such great memories we have with her Kolleen...the pool at Founders Park will never be the same, or that cracked conch that she so loved! How she loved the sun...now she is as close as she could ever wish to be...pure happiness for her. Kolleen, I love you and I'm always here for you. Time will help....my sincere condolences to all of you.
