“ It was sad to hear that my friend, Freda, has left this planet. On the otherhand, I know she is enjoying herself now with the Lord! No more hard work, no worries, no concerns at all -- she can just spend her days singing and praising Jesus! I will always cherish my years of working with her at St. Raphaels. What a gal! She kept our spirits high, didn't she? Linda

“ There are no words that can ease the pain of your loss. You've all been like a second family to us over the years. Your mom opened her home to the boys and me when we had no other family near. We shared friendship, holidays, and lots of laughs. Then Chris joined our family and had the pleasure of befriending and working with her at TRU. In some way or another, she was always there, a friendly face, a funny story. I will never forget her, or the wonderful times we spent together. I hope the memories will replace the sadness you are feeling, and wrap themselves around you. She lives on in all of you, your memories are beautiful treasures. I wanted to share this poem with you: THE TIDE The tide recedes, but leaves behind bright seashells on the sand. The sun goes down, but gentle warmth still lingers on the land. The music stops, yet echoes on in sweet, soulful refrains. For every joy that passes, something beautiful remains. With much love, Lisa, Chris, Logan, Conor & Teia

“ *To my dear friend Janine and family, There are no words of sympathy that anyone can offer that will take your pain away. The loss of a mother, is a gut wrenching pain. Just know that you are loved and prayed for and are constantly in our thoughts. Just take the time to cry, to grieve and when you get pass that point, start to remember the wonderful times and the love you shared with your Mom. Know that your friends will be here for you at any time of the day or night. Know that your Mom was a wonderful woman and her children were blessed to have had her in their lives. God bless you all. “ Dear Neville, Tracy, Kelly, Janine and Danielle Please accept my deepest sympathy on the passing of your love one. I found this poem and would like to share it with you. A mother is a very special person. May God give you the strength to bear this loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Now that I am gone, remember me with smiles and laughter. If you need to cry, cry with your brother or sister who walks in grief beside you. And when you need me, put your arms around someone and give to them what you need to give to me. There are so many who need so much. I want to leave you something much better than words or sounds. Look for me in the people I've known or helped in some special way. Let me live in your heart as well as in your mind. You can love me most by letting your love reach out to our loved ones, by embracing them and living in their love. Love does not die, people do. So, when all that's left of me is love, give me away as best you can. Much love Diane, Tony, Kumar and Reena Rawtani (St. Maarten)
