Dear Camille, Shara and Anya. Sending condolences on behalf of Imani, Chinyere, Josiah and Jabari. We will miss Junior. So gentle, hospitable, and with a quiet sense of humour. What a great cook too. So many times we have had the opportunity to 'taste his hands'. We are here for you all as much as we can. Love for him and for each other, as well as the good memories you share, will help to bring comfort and peace in the years to come.

Dear "my wife, Camille", Shara, Anya, and Swapp Family,

I hope that you will be comforted to know that Junior's legacy as a caring, loving, humorous, self-less person lives on in our memories. In 2018, having been told by my friend, June, that I had recently moved to Trinidad, Junior came to pick me up and took me to Georgia's birthday party, where I met this wonderful gang of friends and was welcomed as one of their own. That was also my first taste of Junior's delicious cooking. His selflessness was also exemplified last year, when in the midst of his battle with cancer, Junior took time to encourage my brother, who is fighting severe prostate cancer. We will miss this "gentleman", in all senses of the word.

“ Dear Camile and Swapp Family,

Thank you for sharing your brother, uncle, father and husband with my family - the Van-Lows. We have been blessed throughout the years to have spent memorable times together celebrating life special moments – birthdays, Easter, Christmas, Mother’s Day, Father’s Day and the list goes on. Captain Junior Swapp was the centre, the cornerstone, and mainstay for all those blessed moments.

Captain Junior’s tower of strength, and love for his family spilled with ebb and flow to my children, who all received his love with care, and understanding. Ryan, Bryant and Kaelan loved you and cared deeply for you. Ed or Eddos as Captain would often say, experienced his relationship like a brother. He stood behind us all, with humility, and without any formal announcement. He lived his life without brag or boast while accomplishments peeked through his consistent, planful approach to life and climb in his professional career. His steadfast love for his family – Camile, Anya and Shara spilled over to our family boundary-free.

Thank you once again Camile and the Swapp family for sharing Junior with us.

“Cap Junior,” your smile is winner, your integrity will be preserved through all that we do, and your love for my family will never wane. Our lives have been enriched by your presence.

With loving gratitude,

The Van-Lows

“ Elgin, when we started high school together we could not predict the future. The passing of a classmate resulted in our reuniting and remaining in touch over the past few years. What a joy it has been. Your visiting Jamaica last year, primarily for a physical reunion, has now taken on far more precious meaning. We miss you Bro. We thank God for having afforded you Camile and the girls and for their genuine love and care. He will richly reward them and all who supported and facilitated them. Rest well my friend.
