

Elizabeth Mary Lotz

September 7, 1937 - July 1, 2018

Elizabeth Mary Lotz (“Betsy”), born on September 7, 1937 in Woonsocket, Rhode Island, passed away at age 80 on July 1, 2018 in Naples, Florida. Elizabeth graduated from Woonsocket High School in 1954 and Rhode Island College of Education in 1958. She was an elementary school teacher in the Woonsocket School Department until retiring in 1989. Elizabeth is survived by her daughters, Mary C. McIntyre of Laconia, New Hampshire, Donna A. DePedro of Manchester, New Hampshire, Ann E. DePedro of Providence, Rhode Island, and Michelle M. Haykel of Westlake Village, California; and grandchildren, Rebekah McIntyre, Stefan McIntyre, Dylan McIntyre, Sydney Haykel and Drew Haykel. Those who wish to make a donation in Elizabeth’s memory may do so to The Alzheimer’s Research Foundation, 3152 Little Road, Suite 146, Trinity, Florida 34655 (www.alzheimersresearchfoundation.com). The family will be having a private memorial service.

Tribute Wall

“ Elizabeth Mary Lotz

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Elizabeth Mary Lotz

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ Betsy Glod Lotz and I grew up and went all the way thru school in Woonsocket from grade 1 thru high school graduation. We were good friends in our youth till she moved away. Sorry to lose another acquaintance. Last time to see her was our 50 high school reunion. She was dancing and happy that night. shirley fontaine gillooley.

shirley gillooley - July 07, 2018 at 07:39 AM