“ Bets's Dad was my father's soccer coach in high school (Rochester, NY), and she was a truly wonderful friend to me and my parents her whole life. She was smart, warm, caring and always willing to help. I have special appreciation for her help with my mother in her later years, when Mom was in Sarasota and I lived in New England. Rest in peace, dear old friend. Martha Woodbridge

“ I just got the news of Elizabeth's passing. I am deeply saddened by the loss. My condolences to her family and friends. I know she is greatly missed.

I met Elizabeth thru some business dealings we shared together, and we became friends over the last few years. We spent time together thru many long conversations on the phone and in person, and i always felt as though i were talking to a friend. I admire her strength and spirit and love of life, and will miss her.

“ Elizabeth's smile lit up my classroom each Friday that she came to help. My students and I just LOVED her. Her bright smile is now a glorious star in the sky!
