“Emma was my Sister in Christ. She was a blessing in my life. I think of her every morning when I pray the prayer she gave me: "Prayer for a New Day" which was taped to her bathroom mirror for many years. "Dear Lord, thank you for the night's rest you gave me. I am grateful for the renewed energy and enthusiasm it has brought. Accept my gratitude for bringing me to the beginning of this new day. I accept it as a precious gift from you. May I use it minute by minute to do your will. Guide me in every problem I face, every decision I make this day. Help me to treat everyone kindly, fairly and thoughtfully. If I should forget you during this day, please do not forget me. Amen. Psalm 118:24 'This is the day the Lord has made; Let us rejoice and be glad in it.'" Emma certainly lived this every day. I will miss her lovely smile, but praise the Lord for bringing her home. Barbara Bender, Lehigh Acres, FL

“Miss Emma was my Grandmother's childhood best friend. I began corresponding with her after my Grandmother's death in 2011. I still have the letter's that Emma sent to my Grandmother over the years. Those two ladies were certainly ornery. I am deeply saddened to read of her passing and send my condolences to family and friends who knew her so well. Celebrate sweet Emma's 100 years on Earth and cherish the memories you have. God Bless. ~ Raina Rigney, Granddaughter of LaHoma Waymire

“ *My dearest Aunt Emma Deatherage, My favorite aunt to whom it was a joy to go visit. I love your jokes and she would get so excited when we will play a board game. She was very competitive and love to win. Emma always had a kind word to say about everyone. She wasn't someone that enjoys gossiping. Have a wonderful 60 years with Uncle Charles. We named our oldest son after Charlie. My husband Jack that is deceased now too loved Aunt Emma and Uncle Charles. They enjoyed spoiling Jack and loving him. Aunt Emma loved her church and God. I find myself thinking and wishing we had more time together. In a few weeks you would be 101. Aunt Emma, has been blessed with a good and healthy life.
Love and Will Miss Aunt Emma Dearly.
With so much love and respect,
Your niece Peggy Deatherage*
