“ Our deepest condolences and sympathies. Eva was a servant, woman of God tirelessly helping and serving. I know of no other who served like Eva. If we all could emulate her. We always thought we would see Howard & Eva and all Kinsingers again, we're sad it did not happen. Hoping my card and letter arrived so she could know how wonderful their great grandson Chandler is doing; we were heart sick when we found out today. Thank you Judy for letting Bobbie know. We are sorry we weren't there to pray but understand the suddenness and shock of it. We love you all very much and treasure our trip to Florida and will miss Eva. Chandler has many pictures on his bedroom wall of Howard, Judy and Eva, and he remembers the family and trip and has the many gifts received even Christmas. My mom showed me the Christmas Card and photo and I remarked how well and healthy everyone looked, especially Eva. You never know what tomorrow holds. Sterling is working out of town- Bobbie called him, he is very very sad, and trying to locate Judy; s number to no avail yet. Can you please let us know when services are just in case? If we may be honored? Sterling was so worried he missed the services. We love Eva and will miss her. Much love and prayers to all of the family and may angels of peace be with everyone. Much Love, Lisa, Bobby, Helen Bobbie, Chandler and the family.
