

Ezekiel Malachi Mae

January 24, 1937 - May 7, 2014

Ezekiel Malachi Mae, 77, of Lehigh Acres, FL passed away May, 7, 2014 at Hope Hospice after an extended illness. A resident of Lehigh for 12 years, he was born in the District of Richmond, Parish of St. Mary, Jamaica, W.I. on January 24, 1937 to the late Timothy May and Mabelle Campbell. As a boy growing up in Jamaica, he was a bright and happy child and was friendly with everyone. He eventually left St. Mary to attend the Prof. Culinary Arts School in Kingston, Jamaica where he received his culinary arts diploma. Mr. Mae worked at Princess Margaret Hospital as a chef for 10 years. Michael, as he was affectionately called, married Sybil P. Reid of Kingston, Jamaica in 1959. He moved to Montreal, Quebec, Canada in 1966 and was a regular church attendant there. He was also employed at McGill University as head chef. He came to the U.S., (Boston, MA) in 1971 where he attended Bunkerhill Community College and was employed for the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority in collections for 25 years until he retired in Florida to escape the cold weather up north. Most recently, his niece, Joyce Edwards and nephew, Bishop Egbert were his primary caregivers when he became ill. Mr. Mae enjoyed attending church, spending time with family, friends and traveling. He joined Palmetto Church of God in 2007 under the pastorate of Bishop Egbert May. The memory of him, as being quiet, kind, mannerable, dedicated and willing to help out any way that he could, will linger long in the hearts and minds of those who knew him. He is survived by his son, Michael Patrick Mae of New Orleans, LA; three sisters: Ms. Ivy Reid of Boston, MA,

Ms. Pearl Lakeman of Boston, MA and Ms. Evie "Tiny" Campbell of Kingston, Jamaica; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, goddaughter and other relatives and friends here in the U.S., England, Canada and Jamaica, W.I. Visitation for family and friends will be held from 10-11am on Sat., May 17, 2014 at the Palmetto Church of God, 1123 Veronica Shoemaker Blvd., Fort Myers, FL. Funeral services will begin at 11:00am with Bishop Egbert May officiating. Burial will follow at Lee Memorial Park Cemetery.

“ Goddie, a year ago you went away without a fond goodbye; You closed your eyes and went to sleep and I need not ask why. I will not fill my heart with sorrow but remember you in every tomorrow; I'll remember the joy, the laughter, the smiles, you're only gone to rest a little while. Although your leaving causes grief, your passing has given you relief. So I'll dry my tears and remember you not as you are now but as the man I once knew. You will continue to live in my heart - God-daughter, Sybil - May 7, 2015

“ Although you are gone I talk about you lots And remember you with fondness for your compassionate ways I will not tie myself to you with tears But be thankful we spent those wonderful years You gave me your love and I can only guess How much you gave to others in happiness I thank you for the friendship to my family you had shown But the time had come for you to travel alone I'll grieve for a time, as grieve I must But my grief has been comforted by trust That it's only for a while that we will part As I cherish your memories within my heart I cannot see or touch you but I know you are here Each time I say "Goddie" I hear your voice, oh so clear When next we pass your way You will greet me with your smile and say Welcome Sybil - my dear goddaughter! And our years of parting will then end with laughter Goddie, I miss you tremendously! Happy Father's Day as usual Love Always

“ We are saddened by the passing of one we hold so dear. The world has lost an earthly son but heaven has gained an angel. To his son, Patrick, Patrick's mom, and other relatives, may you be comforted in knowing that Mr. Mae was well respected and loved by those whose lives he touched. We will forever hold him dear in our hearts. Sweet sleep, Mr. Mae. Mother, son and siblings of Goddaughter

“ Words are not enough to express the loss I feel. The joys of knowing you as a person and the blessing of having you as my godfather have left memories that will stay with me forever. Although I will grieve, I will not tie myself to you with tears but be thankful we shared those wonderful years. May the good Lord grant you eternal rest and peace. You will be sorely missed! “ To me you're more than an Uncle, you're truly a great friend. Someone I could pour my thoughts out to knowing you'll cherish them to the end. You've made me laugh, when I wanted to cry. You've made me stronger, when I felt so weak I could die. Whenever I'm upset I know you're there with a shoulder to cry on. Whenever I face a problem and need some help I know you are one I can rely on. You've always made me happy, I hope you can truly see. You're more than just an Uncle, you're also a great friend to me. we miss you uncle mikey may your soul R.I.P

“ I would like to give my sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Ezekiel Mae. I did not know him personally, but I am sure that he was dearly loved and will surely be missed. The loss of a loved one can be heartbreaking, but please know that you are not without hope. God sees the pain you feel and he "is near to the brokenhearted." (Psalm 34:18) God has promised that soon, no one will lose someone they love in death again. (Isaiah 25:8) We can look forward to the time when we can enjoy life again with our loved ones who have passed away in death. (John 5:28, 29) I hope these thoughts will provide something comforting to remember in this distressing time.
