

Fermina Chavez Castillo

June 30, 1930 - December 8, 2025

“With deep sadness, but also with gratitude for a full and blessed life, we say goodbye to our beloved Fermina Chavez, who made the transition from this world after ninety beautiful years filled with love, wisdom and faith.

Born and raised in Cuba, she lived her life with a joyful spirit and a strength that inspired all who had the privilege of knowing her. She was an exemplary, dedicated, and loving mother who guided her children with unconditional love and taught them the value of family, kindness, and hope.

Her generous heart touched many lives; her home was always a haven of love, laughter, and sweet memories. God blessed her with a long and fulfilling life, and she, in turn, blessed everyone with her presence.

Today we remember her with eternal love, grateful for every shared smile, every wise piece of advice, and every tender gesture that will remain forever in our hearts.

Rest in peace, dear Fermina Chavez. Your light continues to shine in all of us,
MICH!!
