“ Dear Joe and family, I was so sad to hear of Fran's passing. I have so many fond memories of her from our old neighborhood on Knapp Ave. She was such fun.....I will never forget how she used to sing "Mrs. Brown You've Got a Lovely Daughter" when she was working in the kitchen and we all hated that song, but when she sang it, it would make us smile! I remember how she taught me to crochet those shawls that we all wore back then....I actually got pretty good at it....but no one could make a shawl faster than Fran! I feel blessed to have known her and send all of my wishes to you and the kids for comfort and peace as you mourn her passing. Love you all, Maria (and Kevin) Thompson
