

Frances M. Satmary

March 18, 1941 - November 24, 2019

It is with great sadness that the family of Frances Mary Satmary, 78, of 644 La Peninsula Blvd. Naples, Florida, announces her passing on Sunday, November 24, 2019. She was a former resident of Barnegat, New Jersey.

Fran was born on March 18, 1941 in New York City to Nancy and Santo Petruso.

She attended Centenary University and received her M.B.A. in Accounting.

Fran was married on July 23, 1960 to Attila Satmary. They had three children: Vincent, Elizabeth, and Louis.

She worked for Bellcore in Basking Ridge, New Jersey.

Fran was a wonderful piano player. In addition, she enjoyed doing crafts. She was an avid quilter and was known for creating her paper snowflakes which all her friends and family looked forward to receiving at Christmastime. She enjoyed cooking, especially Italian dishes, and baking Christmas cookies. Mahjong as well as canasta clubs and tournaments were also among her interests.

Fran is survived by her daughter Elizabeth (Mike) and son Louis (Chrissy), as well as her 7 grandchildren Alicia, Jonathan, Matthew, Maria, Nicolette, Natalie, and Olivia and 3 great grandchildren Beckham, Weston, and Rhiannon.

The dearly departed joins her parents, Nancy and Santo, husband, Attila, son, Vincent, and grandson Nicholas who preceded her in death.

Following her cremation, the family will hold a private service.

The stars in heaven twinkle a little brighter. A new light has joined them.

Tribute Wall

“ Frances M. Satmary

---

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Frances M. Satmary

---

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ I remember Frances as an extremely generous hostess. She would always open up her home to her children's friends. As one of these "holiday orphans", I could always count on a spectacular meal and a warm welcome into her home. Thank you Frances for letting me enjoy your family.

---

Vivian Garaizar - December 03, 2019 at 09:09 PM