“ I first met the Anderson family at St. Nicholas Episcopal church in Darnestown, Md. From the start they were loving and accepting. They were active in the parish and you could always have wonderful conversations. Frank was on many committees and I interacted with him on many of them. With his government service he is a true American hero.

“ Frank was one of the early members of St. Nicks Church. I worked with him a bit on the vestry years ago. He was a calming influence, a highly trusted advisor, and one who quietly made an impact. I remember talking with Ken Howard about his meetings, supposedly about church matters, where he met Frank at the air park. Frank took him up in his plane, and it put a twinkle in Ken's eye. Frank seemed to be a spiritual man, who all the same had to deal with the tough issues of the world and in difficult situations. A good man we will all miss. Bob McCartin
