

Frank Foos

December 1, 1940 - December 19, 2023

In Loving Memory of Frank Henry Foos
born 12/01/1940, deceased 12/19/2023

It is with profound sorrow that we announce the passing of Frank Foos on December 19, 2023.

Born on December 1, 1940, in Chewelah, Washington, to Mildred and Henry Foos, Frank led a life characterized by passion, generosity, and love. He was a devoted husband to Robbi Karas, former spouse of Sally Meyer, and proud father to Troy and Sean Foos. He was predeceased by his daughters, Jill and Cassandra Foos.

Professionally, Frank owned a True Value Hardware store and created other retail stores in the town of Chewelah. He had genuine caring for his customers and the community. Frank received his degree from the University of Washington, Seattle, where he played trombone in the marching band. One of his favorite memories was of playing in the Rose Bowl parade twice.

Frank's journey was one of adventure blended with a desire to help others. He had a passion for travel and exploring cultures across the globe. In recent years, Frank was involved in Lakewood Ranch (Florida) Rotary Club and loved to read to third grade students every month through the Books for Kids program.

Frank left an indelible mark on the hearts of those who knew him. His quick, easy smile, his humor, and his boundless love created many warm relationships that will be remembered. He will be deeply missed by his wife, Robbi Karas, her daughter Christina; son Troy Foos, daughter-in-law Keri Foos, and grandsons Nicholas and Aiden Foos; son Sean Foos, daughter-in-law

Cherry Foos, and grandsons Colton and Cayden Foos; and granddaughters Khloe and Kamryn

Foos, daughters of Kassandra Foos. Frank's beloved cat, Charles, was taught to do "tricks" by him.

The family extends their deepest gratitude to friends and well-wishers for their support. May Frank's soul rest in eternal peace, and may his memory continue to shine brightly in our hearts.
