“ Dear Laura, Jill & families, I was so sorry to hear about your father, He was such a good person, I will always remember the fun times at Sebago Lake, I remember one in particular when your Dad had on your Mom's fluffy pink slippers in the pouring rain, He was always easy to laugh & joke with. What a quick witt he had, always keep your good memories close to your heart, I know I do and that's what keeps me going thru the passing of my own father, I believe they are still here watching over us. Smiling down on each one of us. Love your cousins, Sophia & family

“ Jill and Laura, your father was a great guy, always quick with a smile and hug and very funny. Wish we could all go back in time to the summer vacations at Sebago Lake and happy happy times for both of our families. My family and I are grateful we got to spend time with him at Jill's wedding, and to see him one last time a few months ago. Wish you weren't so far away. Love and miss you cousin Kathy and family.

“ Dear Dad, I can't believe you are gone and I will miss your big strong hugs, the kiss on my forehead and all of the jokes and your big hearty belly laugh. Our practical jokes and watching movies, cookouts, and time with family/holidays. You taught me so much Dad; how to be strong, love unconditionally, work hard and have Faith in the Lord. I miss you and we will meet again one day. Love forever and always. Your Daughter Laura

“ Two souls. . .eternal companions,
Chose separation for human existence.
Deposited on earth. . .
Ascant day's walk a part. . .unaware.
Traveling separate paths,
Growing, maturing, stumbling,
Having success, but sensing emptiness,
Surrounded by friends, and yet lonely,
With vague feelings of separation. . .lost oneness.
Needing completion,
We sought the unexplainable.
From the depths of our angst,
God heard,
Gently guided. . .
To the same room. . .
At the right time. . .
Face to face.
Soul mates. . .reunited!
Observing with jaded eyes,
We wrestled with the miracle,
Questioning, disbelieving, withdrawing, hesitating,
"til doubt and fear were vanquished.
Come now precious friend. . .take my hand.
Draw nigh to me without reservation.
Let us ride the ragged edge of life as one.
And let us sing and dance,
Confide and scheme,
And share delicious mischief,
Laughter and tears,
Success and struggle,
Vulnerable moments and fiery passion
Drinking the fullness of life,
Finding security in depth of emotion,
Laying in warm embrace,
Waking to tender caress and gentle kiss,
And when our course is run,

*Our adventure done
We will remain with one heart
Eternal companions*

“ My father was a very caring and giving person. He was always there for me and my family. He was a father that I could always count on. I couldn't have asked for a better father. I will miss his jokes, his hugs, and our family get togethers. He taught me so much in life. He taught me how to love, to be strong, to have a good sense of humor, to work hard for what you want in life. He loved his daughters and grandsons. It is going to be very difficult not having him to lean on. I love you Dad. May you rest in peace. You are always in my heart until we meet again.

Love your daughter,
