

Freeman Faulkner

September 6, 1932 - December 5, 2020

Freeman Faulkner was born in Brawley, California on September 6, 1932. He passed away on December 5, 2020 at age 88 due to terminal cancer. Freeman lived for many years in Lake Charles Louisiana, where he worked as a draftsman until his retirement.

He also lived in Beaumont, Texas and spent his final years in Lehigh Acres, Florida alongside his wife Myriam.

He is survived by his sons, Mitchell, Freeman Jr. and Victor Faulkner.

As well as his wife Myriam Faulkner, with whom he had been married for 33 years, his stepsons, Hernan and Arturo Manzano, stepdaughters Claudia Manzano, Janeth Duran, Elizabeth Pacheco and his grandchildren.

Freeman had been a Jehovah's Witness for 74 years. He was a simple man, with a good sense of humor, cheerful, who enjoyed traveling as well as a good piece of chocolate cake with milk.

One of Freeman's last wishes was to go on a road trip from his home in Lehigh Acres to California.

His relatives remember him very fondly, but we know that the pain of his loss will disappear when Jehovah brings him back to life in the Resurrection.

Tribute Wall

“ Freeman Faulkner

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Freeman Faulkner

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Claudia - December 12, 2020 at 08:18 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

Claudia - December 10, 2020 at 12:19 PM