“ *Mick,
What can I say other than you were the best friend and person anyone could ever hope to meet. We became like brothers in a short amount of time and I am so happy our paths in life crossed. I only had a handful of truly best friends and you became one of them. I still can't believe you're gone and we can't talk anymore on the phone. God should leave good hearted people like you in this world, since there's far a few between people like you. My life will never be the same without getting to talk to you and hear your voice. All I have now is the great memories of us riding and playing video games while eating pizza. I hope heaven is treating you well. I miss you bum and hope we can meet again on the other side. Take care*
