

Gary Robert King

October 19, 1947 - March 9, 2026

Gary King, age 78, passed away peacefully on March 9, 2026, surrounded by his loved ones. A resident of Cape Coral, Florida, Gary lived a life defined by dedication to family, service to his country, and pride in his many accomplishments.

Born in Massachusetts, Gary carried with him a lifelong connection to New England. As a young man, he achieved the distinguished rank of Eagle Scout—an accomplishment that remained a great source of pride throughout his life and reflected the values of leadership, perseverance, and service that guided him.

Gary proudly served in the United States Army and was stationed in Alaska, where he worked at a nuclear power facility during his service. After completing his military duty, he pursued higher education and earned his Master's degree in Business from Northeastern University.

Gary built a successful career in the field of information technology, ultimately serving as Senior Vice President at State Street Bank. His professionalism, leadership, and forward-thinking approach earned him the respect of colleagues and peers throughout his career.

Beyond his professional life, Gary found his greatest joy on the water. An avid boater, he loved navigating the shores and harbors of New England, where he felt most at home surrounded by the sea he loved so deeply.

Gary is survived by his devoted wife of 50 years, Jane King, whose partnership and love were the foundation of his life. He also leaves behind his five children: Stephen Craig, Robert Craig, Adam King, Courtney Gray, and Lauren Bedell. He was a proud grandfather to Tyler King, Chandler Bedell, Christopher Craig, Emily Craig, Madison Bedell, Sam King, Landon Gray, Thomas Craig, Andrew Craig, and Brooklyn Gray, each of whom brought him immense pride and joy.

Gary will be remembered for his integrity, adventurous spirit, and deep devotion to his family. His legacy lives on through the lives he touched, the values he instilled in his family, and the many memories shared by those who knew and loved him.
