“ Gary was a true American serving his country when it wasn't popular and when veterans didn't get welcomed back with open arms. I'm proud to say he was my cousin and even prouder to have served this country as he did. He will be missed.

“ Janet, the most wonderful hostess a guest could ask for, Benita, Gary's little girl and Michael, Gary's go-to computer guru, I wish I could be with you. I loved Gary like a brother; that is how I have always thought of all the 'Miller boys', as the brothers I never had. Bill did not have the pleasure of meeting Gary, but has enjoyed stories of the adventures we cousins shared as children growing up. One that comes to mind this time of year is about Gary's birthday. I was a bit younger than Gary but we were all pre-teens. Because he was always so full of mischief (second in amount only to Ralph Jr.) I tried to make Gary believe his birthday was Dec. 24th. That the first family he 'gifted' wasn't ready for all his devilment so he was returned. Fortunately, because he fit right in, the Miller family got him, at a big discount, on the 26th. As the years went by I occassionally reminded him of how he came to our Miller family (sometimes with embellishment). The best part is he ALWAYS agreed it probably did happen that way. To all Gary's family and friends, although we are miles away, we join you in celebrating his life today. Our warmth and love belong to you. Julia and Bill

“ Oh my gosh, I am so sorry. I met Gary at Steves. We cut up deer, told stories and became friends. He laughed and said I sounded like Bubba Bear. Oh by the way we had a couple of beers.

“ Janet, you, the most gracious hostess a guest could ask for, Bonita, Gary's baby girl and Michael, Gary's go to computer guru how I wish I was with you. At this time words have little worth and are repetitive. I will say only that I love you and miss that rough housing, mischeivous, middle boy cousin whom, along with his two brothers, I think of as the brothers I always wished I had. Bill, although not having the good fortune to meet you Floridians, has enjoyed stories of we cousins' adventure when we were children and knows the good family we all have enjoyed. Our warm and loving thoughts belong to you. Julia and Bill Wacker

“ I'm so sorry. I'm sure everyone else feels the same but I wish I had more time with Uncle Gary. I feel extremely fortunate to have shared experiences and beers with Uncle Gary and his untimely departure is heartbreaking.

“ I was blessed to call him Uncle and can't believe I am writing a message on a memory page. I miss Uncle Gary already and want Aunt Janet to know how much she and he have always been loved and treasured. Dear Gary, Tell Grandma and Grandpa I say hello and may you feel the love of all of us here who miss you much. I still can play the Marine Hymn on the piano by heart because of you. I love you.
