“ When we went to Vegas, we stayed at the Paris Hotel. Our last night there we went to eat before getting on the plane. Gary ordered pancakes, the look on his face was priceless. The pancakes were a stack of three, they were as big as the plate. He said " Thought I ordered pancakes, not a Birthday Cake. Our thoughts prayers are with the entire family. May you rest in Peace.

“ Uncle Socky and I remember having a great seafood dinner Theresa prepared with Mom, Delores and Aunt Darlene and Theresa's Dad and Theresa's Aunt. Everyone was talking at almost the same time and reminiscing laughing and just having a great time together.
Gary was greatly loved and will be sorely missed.
