“ George and I worked together in nyc. He was the first guy to befriend me and was one of the gentlest kindest people i ever knew. He was as generous as he was kind and i am glad i knew him for the time i did. May his memory be a blessing

“ George was a sensitive man with a huge capacity for love and forgiveness. His mind and legs operated at accelerated speed, but he was willing to wait for everyone to catch up with him. I shared many good times with George, and he will be not be forgotten.
