Words cannot express my sadness for you and all of us that knew and loved Ginger. She was a special person who loved her friends and family fiercely. My heart goes out to you. She is missed dearly but will be remembered with every ray of sunshine and every drop of rain.

“ I am one of the Wednesday lunch bunch that visited Ginger every Wednesday for the last 5 years. When we, a group of "elderly" gentlemen, would come in and get our ice cream, if there were no other customers, she would join us. She was a free spirit and a wonderful girl. We came in today and was given the news. We were shocked. We loved you Ginger.
