“ Barbara & Family, Steve & I are so sorry to hear of your loss. Harold was a kind and approachable man and although I didn't know him well, Steve has many fond memories of him. He is now in the safest place possible-our loving heavenly father's memory. He truly fought the fine fight to the finish and has come off victorious. May Jehovah give you comfort & peace in the days ahead. We look forward to welcoming him back with you in the resurrection so near at hand. Our thoughts & prayers are with you. Christian love, The Kyarsgaards

“ Harold was a very good man and will be missed dearly. Many fond memories growing up even though he was not my father, we was still a very good father figure and overall role model to look up to. Our sympathies go out to the entire Detrick family.
