“Hector, the times we spent with you were few but impactful. You loved your family and Annette deeply, displaying it best through your impressive handy work. I remember being in complete amazement as Annette walked us through all you built with your own hands.

You were quiet but your presence was known. I always thought your silence signified your peace and delight as you took in the moment you were in; probably in deep thought about all that was happening around you. You provided a beautiful life for Annette and those you loved; Leaving the legacy of your work behind. I hope your family can find peace in that. Peace in knowing that you left a physical footprint on Earth and peace in knowing you are now rejoicing with the Lord.

We send our deepest condolences to Titi Annette and the family.
We love you Annette and will always be here for you ❤️
