“ I am so saddened by her death. She was such a big part of my life as mom of one of my very dearest friends! Her spaghetti got raves from all of us and of course my wedding cake was most beautiful! Closing my eyes I can see us in the North Tonawanda kitchen with her smiling, leaning against the counter; probably wondering what kind of trouble "Nita" and I were going to get into next. I know heaven will welcome her lovingly as she joins "Dad" and other family and friends that have gone before. Love and Hugs to all of her family!
